Merit Badge Workbook

This workbook can help you but you still need to read the merit badge pamphlet.

This Workbook can help you organize your thoughts as you prepare to meet with your merit badge counselor.

You still must satisfy your counselor that you can demonstrate each skill and have learned the information.

You should use the work space provided for each requirement to keep track of which requirements have been completed, and to make notes for discussing the item with your counselor, not for providing full and complete answers.

If a requirement says that you must take an action using words such as "discuss", "show", "tell", "explain", "demonstrate", "identify", etc, that is what you must do.

Merit Badge Counselors may not require the use of this or any similar workbooks.

No one may add or subtract from the official requirements found in Scouts BSA Requirements (Pub. 33216 – SKU 653801).

The requirements were last issued or revised in 2019 • This workbook was updated in September 2020.

(USSSP).

2. Discuss the plan with your family.

3. Discuss how other family needs must be considered in this plan.

- c. Develop a written shopping strategy for the purchase identified in requirement 1a.

1. Determine the quality of the item or service (using consumer publications or ratings systems).

2. Comparison shop for the item. Find out where you can buy the item for the best price. (Provide prices from at least two different price sources.)

Source	Price

Call around; study ads. Look for a sale or discount coupon. Consider alternatives.

Can you buy the item used?

Should you wait for a sale?

2. Do the following:

- a. Prepare a budget reflecting your expected income (allowance, gifts, wages), expenses, and savings for a period of 13 consecutive weeks
(There is a blank Sample Budget Plan table to set up a budget, summarize actual income and expenses, and compare them monthly at the end of this workbook, with a partially completed example.)
- b. Compare expected income with expected expenses.
 - 1. If expenses exceed budget income, determine steps to balance your budget.

2. If income exceeds budget expenses, state how you would use the excess money (new goal, savings).

3. Track and record your actual income, expenses, and savings for 13 consecutive weeks (the same 13-week period for which you budgeted). (You may use the forms provided in this pamphlet, devise your own, or use a computer-generated version.) When complete, present the records showing the results to your merit badge counselor.

(There is a table for tracking your actual weekly income and expenses that you can use, at the end of this workbook, together with a partially completed example.)

4. Compare your budget with your actual income and expenses to understand when your budget worked and when it did not work. With your merit badge counselor, discuss what you might do differently the next time

3. Discuss with your merit badge counselor FIVE of the following concepts:

- a. The emotions you feel when you receive money.

- b. Your understanding of how the amount of money you have with you affects your spending habits.

- c. Your thoughts when you buy something new and your thoughts about the same item three months later.

Explain the concept of buyer's remorse.

- d. How hunger affects you when shopping for food items (snacks, groceries).

- e. Your experience of an item you have purchased after seeing or hearing advertisements for it.

Did the item work as well as advertised?
